Keynote Speaker

Richard Mourdock, Indiana State Treasurer

Richard Mourdock was elected Indiana's State Treasurer in November 2006 and was re-elected in 2010. As Treasurer, Richard has been an integral part of the state's fiscal health. He is known nation-wide for leading the legal fight to challenge the Obama Administration's illegal bailout and takeover of Chrysler. Richard took this case all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of Indiana pensioners.

A solid conservative, Richard is a popular speaker at Republican events and Tea Party rallies alike. Prior to his election as State Treasurer, Richard had a successful 30 year career in the private sector, managing businesses in the energy, environmental and construction industries. He also served two terms as County Commissioner of Vanderburgh County.

Richard is a licensed pilot, has been active in Christian Missions in Bolivia, holds a Master's Degree in Geology from Ball State University and a Bachelor's Degree from Defiance College in Ohio. Richard has completed six marathons in the past eight years. He and his wife, Marilyn, live in Darmstadt, Indiana.
