CFMA began as an informal gathering of construction financial executives in 1981 and has since grown into a vital industry participant.

CFMA meets the needs of a broad spectrum of financial managers: CFO's, treasurers, controllers, and accountants. CFMA's General Membership represents all types of contractors, including generals and subcontractors, as well as developers, construction managers, architects, engineers, principals, and material and equipment suppliers. CFMA's Associate Membership is open to those serving the construction industry, such as lawyers, public accountants, bankers, sureties, insurance agents and carriers, material and equipment suppliers and other service providers.

CFMA's core purpose today is to provide resources to meet the challenges of construction financial professionals. We host educational, social, or service events monthly. For information about events or the association, contact the association's office at (317) 842-6325, visit the association's website at www.cfma-in.org, or look us up (CFMA of Central Indiana) on LinkedIn. CFMA of Central Indiana is affiliated with the Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA), the national organization for construction financial professionals.
